The soundtrack of Sanam Re was composed by Ankit Tiwari and Jeet Gannguli, with lyrics penned by Kausar Munir. The first song of the album, "Kehta Hai Dil", sung by Alka Yagnik and Akriti Kakkar, was released as a promotional single on 26 October 2011. The second single from the film, "Pyaar Mohabbat Ki Baat Hai", sung by Asha Bhosle and Shreya Ghoshal, was released on 3 November 2011. The full album was released later that day on Sahara Music's YouTube channel. The soundtrack received mixed reviews. Mayank Shekhar of "Hindustan Times" rated the soundtrack 2 out of 5 stars, saying that "it's a very basic album. The tracks are carried by Alka Yagnik's vocals and the basic track structure. The songs are more of novelty than being of any particular merit." A review in "The Indian Express" rated it 3/5 stars, noting "What set this album apart is its Abhijeet Bhattacharya-esque poet lyricism", calling it an "innovative attempt to reach out to solo singers". "Sanam Re" (2011) was released on 6 November 2011. It received mixed reviews from critics. Taran Adarsh of "Bollywood Hungama" gave the film 3/5 stars, calling it a "respectable wafer-thin entertainer". Mayank Shekhar of "Hindustan Times" rated it 2 out of 5 stars, saying that the film fails to live up to its potential as a horror film. Hemant Mishra of "Rediff.com" rated the film 2/5 stars and called it a "sticky '10' formula horror flick".
